

I am very happy with New Jersey's "Do Not Call" law it has dramatically reduced the number of unwanted calls I now receive. I do not believe that it would be in the best interest of consumers to weaken this law and am requesting that nothing be done on the federal level to reduce the benefit that the New Jersey consumer protection law has provided us.